

Scene through Wood: A Century of Wood Engraving

16 January - 13 March

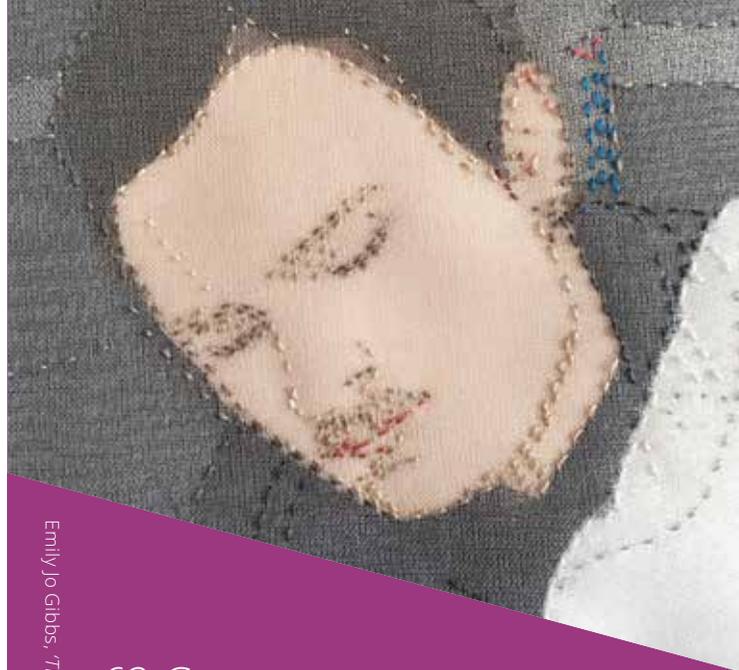

Scene Through Wood celebrates one of the most skilful and richly creative forms of visual art and marks the 100th anniversary of the Society of Wood Engravers. Curated by Anne Desmet, it includes 120 works from the Ashmolean's outstanding collection, by leading artist-engravers from the 1790s to the present. It shows the versatility of the medium in depicting the whole 'theatre of life', from work and play, war and hardship, designs for industry and typography, to natural landscapes and dazzling city scenes. Included are works by well-known artists such as Thomas Bewick, William Blake, Clare Leighton, Gertrude Hermes, Gwen Raverat, Eric Ravillious, Paul Nash, Henry Moore and M. C. Escher

Exhibition sponsored by Stuart Southall.

62 Group Conversations: People, Places, Materials, Objects

20 March - 1 May

The 62 Group aim to incorporate and challenge the boundaries of textile practice through an ambitious and innovative annual programme of exhibitions. We are delighted to welcome them to Lymington for the first time. Since its establishment, the 62 Group has been able to count some of the most highly regarded British textile artists as its members.

This exhibition will be built around a series created especially for us by Emily Jo Gibbs called 'The Boat Builders', portraits of apprentices working at Berthon Boat Company. This will be accompanied by members' work exploring the working relationship that artists have with the world around them and in particular artwork that investigates the creative dialogue that takes place between the artist/maker and the themes: people, place, materials, objects.

Thank you for choosing to visit us.

Please wear a mask, maintain social distancing, relax and enjoy our world of art and culture! No need to book, just turn up and unwind.

St Barbe is a charitable arts organisation with a commitment for our local community. We are always looking for ways to make our collection and exhibitions accessible for everyone. We are currently developing a new website, please bear with us as we make improvements. As restrictions ease, we will add exhibitions, activities and events to our programme, for information please visit our www.stbarbe-museum.org.uk or our social media pages.

As a charity, this is a challenging time for us. Most of our income is from admissions, our shop and café, which all disappeared during the lockdowns. If you are able to, please join our Friends, unlimited access for less than £2 a month; become a Business Partner; make a one-off donation or consider 'regular giving' via our Inspire Fund.

We would be very grateful.

Are you aware?

St Barbe is more than a Museum and Art Gallery: we are a charitable arts and heritage organisation with a social commitment to our local community. Within government guidelines we are working on new ways to bring you our events and workshops. Who knew that 'Zoom' would become part of our vocabulary after lockdown? It has been a great way to stay in touch with our younger visitors, our school holiday 'Craft-along' events have proved to be popular with both children and parents. The St Barbe Young Curators continue their input into our future collection and policies – whilst working towards a Silver Arts Award. Our Learning and Engagement Programme has been developed to help children understand their local heritage and environment, complementing KS1/2 we focus on learning through enjoyment.
