

St Barbe Museum and Art Gallery will re-open after a major refurbishment on

Sat 29 July at 11am

National Lottery players have made the major refurbishment of St Barbe Museum and Art Gallery possible. To say thank you we are offering

Admission by donation on the day of our re-opening.

- New museum displays
- Larger art galleries
- Contemporary café and shop
- Public research room
- Activity room

First exhibition:

Birds of the New Forest

by Geoffrey Dashwood, with interpretation by TV presenter and wildlife expert Chris Packham

LOTTERY FUNDED